Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Shirley Jenks has been employed at the Veterans Administration Medical Center in Fort Meade, South Dakota, since May 1967, as a supervisory contract specialist; and,

WHEREAS, Shirley has devoted her life to the betterment of her community, the caring and sharing with family and friends and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, Shirley is a devoted wife to her husband, Wayne, and a good mother to their three daughters; and,

WHEREAS, On June 30, after more than 22 years of service to the medical center and this great state, Shirley Jenks is retiring and taking time to travel:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 30, 1989, as in South Dakota, and I join her many friends and relatives in wishing her good luck in the future.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fourteenth Day of June, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
